Co-Creation Global is an international digital media organization dedicated to sharing heart-based, transformational, inspiring and uplifting content for an ever-growing global community.

CCG E-Magazine is designed as a platform for influencers, teachers, leaders, coaches, artists, healers, and all those who aspire to elevate global consciousness. We are known for our quality content from leading authors in the fields of Conscious Living, Personal Growth, Health & Wellbeing, Energy Medicine & Quantum Healing, Conscious Business & Leadership, Conscious Parenting, Conscious Relationships, and many others central to Unity Consciousness.

Our platform is designed to be multimedia – we accept text, podcast, and video stories and articles. If you are interested in becoming a Content Contributor, please take a look at some of the examples on the site to get a sense of how your content may best fit within our global portal.

Content Guidelines

The following is a list of content style suggestions to keep in mind as you are creating your content for publication.

- We encourage you to write from the heart in a way that enables others to see how your stories or experiences may provide answers and inspiration.
- Aim to create positive and elevating content to enrich people's lives and facilitate inner-transformation.
- Share with love, respect, and gratitude, knowing that your content is making a difference in the world; and that which you give comes back to you in many ways.
- Invite people to awaken to their true nature, knowing that we are all extensions of the One Source Consciousness, and that we are here to experience physical reality in all its forms.
- Invite people to see they are a Source Frequency... which is LOVE. The world is exactly how the global consciousness has co-created it for collective transformation and healing. We are not here to fix anything – we are here to experience everything. No exceptions. In your content we invite you to teach and not preach.

- We suggest you invite people to be of service to the global whole. That is, to explore and participate in a journey with their Source-Self and their infinite possibilities.
- Encourage people not to get lost in the mirage of local physical reality which is tethered to a state of unconsciousness and to wake up to the infinite possibilities of their Source-Frequency.
- Refrain from reinforcing existing beliefs or ways of being that are based upon the cultural or theological practices that invite separation and fear. Instead, focus upon those with love and oneness, empowerment, understanding, and wholeness.
- Offer tools, techniques, resources, ideas or other information that the audience can experiment with after reading or listening to your content.

Submission Standards & Requirements

CCG E-Magazine is designed to handle multimedia. This means we have the option to post text, podcast, and video articles and stories. Please note the following submission standards and requirements for each.

Text Submissions:

- Submissions can be 700 – 1000 words (with some flexibility).
- We prefer innovative articles and stories, so please include research sources if it is a discourse on a specialized topic. We encourage personalized stories that explain a point (i.e., awakening, consciousness, healing, etc.).

- Please ensure your content and supporting material has been fully edited, including grammar, punctuation, and page layout. We recommend using Grammarly and your word processing software to pre-edit the text. We also suggest that you read the article out loud at least twice – this is a technique that helps you pick up errors or omissions; alternately, get someone else to review it. We may reject articles that do not meet submission standards.
- Please specify which genre or genres your article fits in. Here are some examples:
 - Co-Creation
 - Conscious Business & Leadership
 - Conscious Parenting
 - Energy Medicine & Quantum Healing
 - Health & Wellbeing
 - Personal Growth
 - Planetary Consciousness
 - Environment & Sustainable Living
 - Prosperity / Abundance
 - Relationships
 - Collective Consciousness
 - Spirituality
 - Non-human Sentient Beings
 - Other topics central to Conscious Living & Unity Consciousness
- Please ensure that your articles have a clear title that aptly represents the content and context of the article.
- Your writing style should avoid being self-promotional or intentionally focused towards a particular group. Aim to appeal to a broader audience.

- We do not accept advertorials, advertising, promotional, or sponsored content unless approved by the managing editor.
- Provide originally written articles even if you are making a contribution from a book you have written. Excerpts or extracts from previously published books, periodicals, or blogs will need approval by the editorial team.
- Provide copyright free images with your text, having the right image to complement your content. If you do not have original material or access to a copyright free library, our editorial staff will provide it for you.

Audio Podcast Submissions:

Podcasts need to be submitted with the following format and supporting material:

- Link to your Podcast – MP3 files only.
- Text transcript.
- Copyright free graphics which may illustrate the content.
- A title with a 50 to 100-word content description, including the source link at the end.
- Podcasts can be from 30 to 60 minutes. We will also consider serialized stories, and will need separate descriptions, headers, and graphics for each episode.
- If you choose, we suggest you also produce a 2 to 5-minute promotional audio.

Video Submissions:

Videos need to be submitted in the following format and quality standards:

- Provide a link to where the video source file is stored (i.e., You tube, Vimeo, etc.).
- Include the text transcript.
- The video should be a high-quality presentation. A professionally prepared and edited video is essential.
- Videos should have good quality lighting, sound, and a neutral background when possible. Green screen background effects or video backgrounds are acceptable if you have the requisite editing skills.
- Take full advantage of the visual and auditory options available to include in your video. Video-storytelling is similar to a podcast, except that you have the added benefit of including optics and music, providing another dimension of engagement.
- If you use third-party videos or music, please ensure to have a copyright release or have obtained these as license-free products.
- Creating videos with captions or subtext for hearing impaired viewers and for those who prefer this option is highly recommended for audience inclusion.
- Videos can be from 30 to 60 minutes in duration.
- If you choose, we suggest you also produce a 2 to 5-minute promotional video.
- Provide a title with a 50 to 100-word content description, including the source link at the end.

General Submission Criteria & Supporting Material:

- Acceptable Material: Text, podcast, or video stories and articles that have already been published on the internet are NOT acceptable content. This is to ensure placement, originality, and quality of content of Co-Creation Magazine on the web. We can, however, work with content previously published if it has been re-curated or slightly modified.

- Pictures / Graphics & Copyright: If you are providing content with graphics, we need to know the original source of the picture for copyright reasons. To simplify this issue, we suggest you allow our experienced editors to select an appropriate picture to complement your piece from an approved source.
- Author Bio, Author Photo, & Website: The following items are required to accompany your content for the purpose of giving you credit in the magazine and affiliated social media.
 - A biography about the author – approximately 50 words.
